Attn: To Whom It May Concern
RE: Tyson Media Productions Recommendation

My name is Eyal Lichtmann, and I am the CEO of RAPS - Regional Animal Protection Society, a registered charity that operates the RAPS Cat Sanctuary, the RAPS Adoption & Education Centre, a fostering network, social enterprise thrift stores and the full-service RAPS Animal Hospital.

Since starting production on 'Pets & Pickers' the program has been a great fundraising tool for us bringing to the tune of XXX. Since the program was purchased by Warner Bros. / Discovery + and airing on Animal Planet USA there has been even more and increasing donations. We've received all sorts of amazings donated items such as gold coins, art work and postage stamps.

Tyson and his team have also been paramount in setting up screenings and fundraising events. Our last 'Pets & Pickers' related gala raised over $100,000 in donations.

The program has also been a great educational tool for our viewers.

Tyson and his company have always been very capable, productive, and professional, who we continue to keep working with for years to come. Please consider this reference a huge recommendation to work with Tyson Media Productions.

Kindest regards,

Eyal Lichtmann
